Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: 70 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 4 years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court. See the Court's General Order No. 318;
2. The defendant shall participate in outpatient substance abuse treatment and submit to drug testing four (4) times per month, as instructed by the Probation Officer. The Defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs during the period of supervision;
3. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and the Probation Officer; and

IT IS ORDERED that the Probation Officer shall provide the Defendant with a written statement that sets forth all the conditions to which the term of Supervised Release is subject, pursuant to 18 USC 3583(f).
